25 min (5 minutes per poster)	Practice: For this activity, the completed mind-map was shown on the digital whiteboard as they were working. The assigned pairs in the classroom are grouped with other pairs, resulting in the classroom being divided into 4 equal groups. - ‘These are cartoons where the ‘sorry’ has been take away. Please read the situation in the cartoon very carefully and try to come up with a new way to say sorry. Try and use different ones. You have 5	Pencil Eraser Power point lesson four Poster activity minute and then you will get a new cartoon’ Once all groups have written something on each poster, this activity is finished.

15min	The puzzle was laid randomly on the ground and pupils were asked to stand up and wait for further instruction. - ‘There are apologies that have no colour and there are ways to say sorry that filled with some colour. What you will do is pick one from the floor and find the person that is holding the pair you belong together with. For example, if I pick up ‘I can help you fix it’, I will need to find the person who has picked up the way of saying sorry called ‘Trying to fix it’. Gives further examples if needed.
